

Household Goods: Information and Suggestions for Shipments

- ✦ Effective 12 May 2020, MARADMIN 284/20, provides guidance and health safety screening requirements for household goods shipments to protect the force during relocation. Additional documents and support during a COVID-19 environment are available at: <https://www.iandl.marines.mil/Divisions/Logistics-Division-LP/Logistics-Distribution-Policy-Branch-LPD/PCS-Move-Resources/>
- ✦ Once you have been found medically suitable for your overseas tour, please begin the process of setting up your shipment of household goods by visiting <https://www.militaryonesource.mil/moving-housing/> to create/update your DPS account.
- ✦ It is encouraged to perform a self-counseling to reduce friction and facilitate better planning before your final appointment with the Distribution Management Office (DMO) or the Transportation Management Office (TMO).
- ✦ Funded Orders and a copy of your Approved Area Clearance/Dependent Entry Approval (DEA) may be required to finalize your shipment of Household Goods (HHGs) with DMO/TMO.

ITEMS NEEDED WHEN RESIDING CONTIGENCY OR PERMANENT HOUSING

Please plan to bring the following items with you or coordinate with your sponsor to secure the items upon arrival.

- Masks/face coverings - cloth or disposable.
- Bedding (double & twin size sheets, blankets, pillows and pillow casings) and linens.
- Select baby items (if applicable).
- Towels and washcloths: enough for each family member.
- Medication, contact lenses or glasses, and other hygiene items.
- Children entertainment and comfort items (i.e. toys and their personal belongings).
- Electronic devices such as tablets, laptops to complete virtual check-in requirements (if applicable).
- Pet food and other pet supplies (if applicable).
- Cleaning supplies and any other essential items you will need.
- *Set of dishes, kitchenware, and cutlery: temporary kitchen kits are available for personnel to borrow through Marine & Family Programs-Resources Centers. Coordinate with your sponsor to secure a kit prior to your arrival.

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE EXPRESS/UNACCOMPANIED BAGGAGE SHIPMENT

- 42-inch TV or smaller, DVD /Blu-ray Player and a few favorite DVDs.
- Baby crib or Play Pen. (Item has to be less than 42 inches in diameter when disassembled).
- Lamps, small fans and space heater. Some off-base housing units do not have built-in heaters.
- Additional bedding and linens (double & twin size sheets, blankets, pillows and pillow casings).
- Set of dishes, kitchenware, cutlery and small appliances (enough for you or your entire family to use).
- Clothing to include rain gear and summer clothes. Okinawa is extremely hot and humid during the summer time. Pack a combination of clothing to include a warm jacket as weather varies dramatically.
- Additional children's items (i.e. toys and their personal belongings).
- Small rugs and a few carpets as tile over concrete is the standard floor in most homes.
- Any other essential items needed within the first 30-60 days.

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE HOUSEHOLD GOODS SHIPMENT

- Additional clothes and shoes not packed in the express shipment.
- Additional kitchenware not packed in the express shipment.
- Bedroom set or mattresses (if you have comfortable ones).
- Living room set, if not too heavy.
- Large rugs, carpets, and household/holiday décor.
- Bathroom sets such as bathroom rugs, additional towels and shower caddies.
- Keep books to a minimum unless they are part of your professional equipment.
- Dehumidifiers are great to have as it is very humid in Okinawa during the spring and summer months.
- CDs, DVDs, and board games are a must to have during bad weather or Typhoon Season.
- Temporary loaner furniture is available for personnel on full JFTR weight allowances. For details, please visit the Furnishings Management website: <http://www.housing.af.mil/Units/Okinawa/furnishingsmanagement/>

Updated November 2022

This serves as general list of suggestions for the shipment of HHGs. For additional policies or weight allowances relating to your HHGs shipment please contact your local DMO or TMO.
