HEALTH AND MEDICINE

- American College of Sports Medicine (ACSM):
 - American College of Sports Medicine (ACSM) credentialing is the most respected in the health and fitness industry. Viewed as the best measure of competence of sports medicine and health and fitness professionals, it requires the highest level of knowledge and skills and establishes the standard for all other certifications. Other programs have used ACSM certification as a model, but none have achieved ACSM's high standards.
 - ACSM Certified Personal Trainer
 - ACSM/NCPAD Certified Inclusive Fitness Trainer
 - ACSM Certified Health Fitness Specialist
 - ACSM Certified Clinical Exercise Specialist
 - ACSM Registered Clinical Exercise Physiologist

- ASCP Certification Testing (ASCP-BOR)
 - The ASCP Board of Registry is an administratively independent certification agency that prepares relevant standards and develops procedures that will assure the competence of non-physician medical laboratory personnel. The ASCP Board of registry certifies those individuals who have met the academic and clinical prerequisites and who achieve acceptable performance levels on examinations.

- American Medical Technologists (AMT)
 - American Medical Technologists (AMT) is a national agency that certifies seven primary designations of healthcare personnel: medical technologists, medical laboratory technicians, office laboratory technicians, medical assistants, phlebotomy technicians, dental assistants and medical office administrative specialists. The organization's purpose is to help protect the welfare of the public by maintaining competency standards in these occupations.

- Dental Assisting National Board (DANB)
 - Dental Assisting National Board (DANB) is the nationally-recognized premier certification and credentialing agency for dental assistants. For more than 50 years, DANB has worked within, and has the support of, the dental community. When you become DANB-Certified, you join an elite group of over 30,000 Certified Dental Assistants (CDAs) nationwide. The American Dental Association recognizes DANB as the national certification agency for dental assistants.

- National Registry of Emergency Medical Technicians (NREMT)
 - NREMT Certification examinations are intended to evaluate the competence of EMS practitioners at a variety of levels: First Responder, EMT Basic, EMT Intermediate ('85 and '99), and Paramedic.

- Pharmacy Technician Certification Board
 - There are two parts to being a Certified Pharmacy Technician (CPhT) through PTCB. First, pharmacy technicians must sit for and pass the national Pharmacy Technician Certification Exam (PTCE). Once a pharmacy technician has passed the exam, he or she may use the designation of CPhT. Second, to continue to hold certification, a CPhT is required to obtain twenty hours of continuing education for recertification within two years of original certification or previous recertification.
