

Competitive Endurance Sports

MCCS Semperfit hosts a wide variety of high endurance sporting events for Marines and Sailors stationed on Okinawa. These include marathons, 5Ks and 10Ks, triathlons, open ocean swims and high-intensity tactical training events, just to name a few. There are even triathlons for kids! Check out MCCS Okinawa's Sports & Wellness Facebook page to see more event photos at facebook.com/mccsokinawa.sportsandwellness.

Annual Kinser Triathlon

The Annual Kinser Triathlon consists of a 5K run, 15K bike race and a 400M swim. Although there is a 200 participant limit for the event, maximum capacity is often achieved. All participants receive commemorative items and after completion of the event, an awards ceremony is held in which 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place in each age division receive awards and prizes.

Date: May 19, 2019
Time: 8:00 a.m.
Location: Camp Kinser

Participants: 200
Spectators: 150

POW/MIA Remembrance Run

The POW/MIA Remembrance Run is a 5k run open to military personnel and families. In Okinawa, we hold a resource fair following the event where we recognize POWs and those that are currently MIA. POW/MIA Recognition Day is observed annually across the United States on the third Friday of September. On this day, service members take time to pay homage to those who were POW or are still MIA. Since World War I, approximately 83,400 U.S. service members are still unaccounted for, and more than 150,000 Americans have been held as prisoners of war.

Date: September 6, 2019
Time: 8:00 a.m.
Location: Camp Hansen

Participants: 1,000+
Spectators: 150

Hansen Tri-Ekiden

Tri-Ekiden is a relay triathlon. This is an extreme event with teams competing in a 5K run, 15K bike ride, and a 400M swim. Because each leg is run by a different team member, the event moves faster and is much more competitive. It is also exciting for the spectators as they watch the competition for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place in each division (8 divisions).

Date: June 2, 2019
Time: 8:00 a.m.
Location: Camp Hansen

Participants: 200
Spectators: 100

Futenma Triathlon

Open to participants island-wide, the MCAS Futenma's Triathlon is a grueling test of stamina and athleticism that is held annually on Okinawa's Marine Corps Air Station. Free food and drinks are offered, and participants receive commemorative items. At the conclusion of the event, an awards ceremony is held and overall male and female winners as well as the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place in each age division receive awards and prizes.
