

Kids Sporting Events

ABOUT

MCCS Semper Fit Youth Sports has created various special kid friendly events throughout the year for those children that wish to be active and stay active all year long. These events help maintain a healthy active lifestyle for many of our military children. They also help in building community relations and encouraging friendly competition. The most important thing is they provide a way for the children to have fun.

Youth Basketball

Friendship Games is a series of Basketball games that will occur throughout the Youth Sports season.

These games foster friendship and comradery between MCCS youth athletes and local national youth. These games occur in order to bridge a gap between the base personnel and the local community. While the games are noncompetitive in nature, they encourage the development of good sportsmanship and friendly game-play. The Friendship Games are an integral part to our sports season, and it is essential we show our gratitude to our local counterparts.
